On the ball with the Manager

Welcome to today's visitors Middlesbrough as we return to Burnden Park after our midweek game against Manchester United.

We managed a 1—1 draw against Boro at Ayresome Park and we will be looking to continue our good home record which has seen us take 14 points out of 14 since our defeat at the hands of Nottingham Forest by a single goal way back on November 25.

Of course, we almost got our revenge at the City Ground when we were leading Forest by the only goal of the game until the dying moments when the Million Pound Man Trevor Francis scored an equaliser.

That's past history now, and I am more concerned with our performances at Burnden. We beat Everton in a hard-fought encounter by three goals to one, yet surprisingly it was a more difficult encounter against Queens Park Rangers who look set for the drop after we beat them 2—1.

Our goal-scoring duo did it again. Frank Worthington got the first and then Alan Gowling headed the winner in the second half. The game was marred by the sending off of Rangers' former England skipper Gerry Francis just before the interval and not for the first time a team with 11 players found it difficult to play against one with 10.

In the end everything came right, although we left it late with Alan scoring the winner only just before the end.

After the game I was asked about players going to America, but I want to stress that no one will be released until the end of the season unless they are out of the first team reckoning.

After today's game we have four remaining home games — with the last three games all at Burnden against Liverpool on May 1, Aston Villa on May 5 and Tottenham Hotspur on May 8.

With our away form not as good as it might be, it is obvious that our home performances have kept us in the First Division and we hope to have plenty more thrills in store for the fans here at Burnden before the curtain closes on our first season back in the top grade.

Welcome to . . .

Middlesbrough were set on a crash course for the Second Division when they went into decline after Christmas and, by the end of February, they had dropped to level on points with Q.P.R. in the danger zone. After that, manager John Neal snapped his men out of their lethargy, made some team changes, results showed a dramatic improvement and now they should keep well clear of the danger zone.

Strangely, Middlesbrough's fall followed immediately upon their crushing 7—2 victory over Chelsea at Ayresome Park. Maybe the players were lulled by that result into a false sense of superiority? Whatever the reason, the problem now seems to have been solved.

With the club then in such a precarious position, it was thought that Mr. Neal might well draw upon some of the cash received by the sale of striker David Mills to W.B.A. for £500,000. But the manager was not rushed into transfer activity and preferred to rely upon the new men he had already signed this season.

During last summer he paid Kilmarnock £100,000 for Scottish international goalkeeper Jim Stewart. Ironically, Stewart was one of the players to lose his place in the recent re-shuffle. The manager recalled Jimmy Platt who had been loaned out to Hartlepool and Cardiff earlier this season.

The season was only a few weeks old when Mr. Neal went into the market to buy striker Micky Burns from Cardiff for £75,000. Burns had left the North-East only a matter of weeks before but was far from happy in Wales. He has responded to the move by going to the top of the club's scoring list.

Mr. Neal also spent £210,000 on the purchase of Northern Ireland winger Terry Cochrane to give his side quite a new look.

Cochrane has not been in the side of late, however, and the forward line has been: Billy Ashcroft, Burns and David Hodgson. Ashcroft moved from Wrexham to Middlesbrough for £120,000 last season soon after Mr. Neal had left Wrexham to take over at Middlesbrough. But Ashcroft has never quite found his same scoring touch at Ayresome Park and he lost his place for a while and was often nominated as substitute. On one occasion he even turned out at right-back!

John Mahoney, David Armstrong and Mark Proctor have been filling the midfield positions whilst the back four has settled with John Craggs, Stuart Boam, Tony McAndrew and Peter Johnson on duty here.

Middlesbrough made a very poor start to the season, winning only one of their opening nine League matches. At that time, when they were struggling to find their feet, they were knocked out of the League Cup in the second round by Third Division Peterborough who drew 0—0 at Ayresome Park and then won the replay 1—0.

Their F.A. Cup run was equally short-lived. They were held to a 1—1 draw at Ayresome Park by

Crystal Palace in the third round and then went down 0—1 in London.

This season's struggle has been the more disappointing because, though the club has never won the League Championship or either of the Cups, they have been very close to a breakthrough since their return to the First Division in 1974.

They battled their way through to the last eight of the F.A. Cup for the past two seasons and in 1976 they were beaten in the semi-final of the League Cup.

Middlesbrough finished seventh in their first season back at the top but since then they've showed a gradual decline in the League whilst maintaining a strong challenge in the Cups.

It really seemed as if they might be on their way to Wembley for the first time last season when they disposed of Coventry, Everton and ourselves. Then, faced with a home tie against lowly Second Division Orient, they were held to a goalless draw at Ayresome Park and then crashed out 1—2 in the replay.

JIMMY PLATT (Goalkeeper). Jimmy has recently regained his place in the team. He originally joined the club from Ballymena United in 1970 and made his League debut a year later. During his early days at Ayresome Park, when things were not going so well, he played as a striker in the reserves. He regained his confidence and he went on to win four N. Ireland caps.

JOHN CRAGGS (Defender). John has been Middlesbrough's right-back for eight years and has fully repaid the substantial fee the club invested in his transfer from Newcastle in 1971. During his early days at St. James Park, John won England youth honours.

STUART BOAM (Defender). Stuart has become one of the most reliable central defenders in the First Division and has been on permanent duty for Middlesbrough since his transfer from Mansfield in 1971. He had been in the Stags' senior side for four years before his move.

TONY McANDREW (Defender). Tony has been playing left-back and central defender in recent weeks but he started the season in midfield. He made his League debut against Luton in November 1973 and has been on regular duty for the past three years.

DAVID HODGSON (Forward). David is the latest recruit from the reserves to get his chance. He netted his first League goal in the 1—1 draw at Q.P.R. in January.

IAN BAILEY (Defender). Ian completed his apprenticeship at Ayresome Park and made his League debut in 1975/76. The following season he went to both Doncaster and Carlisle on loan but last term he returned to Middlesbrough to take over from Terry Cooper at left-back.

JOHN MAHONEY (Midfield). John, who was once at Burnden Park as a junior, has represented Wales on 38 occasions. It was after joining Crewe that he got his chance in League soccer in 1965/66 and the following season he moved on to Stoke for £17,500. He remained at Stoke for 11 years before signing for Middlesbrough at the beginning of last season.

PETER JOHNSON (Defender). Peter was drafted into the Middlesbrough side for the closing matches of last season, playing both in the centre and on the left of the defence. He has come back in recent weeks to win the left-back spot.

DAVID ARMSTRONG (Midfield). David has been ever-present for the past five years and, unless injuries have caused him to miss a game on the run-up to Easter, he has the chance to make it six in a row this term. He made his League debut in 1971/72 and became an England under-23 international.

MARK PROCTOR (Midfield). Mark made his first League appearance at Birmingham in September this season and his prospects were helped when David Mills was sold to W.B.A. for £500,000 for, in the re-arrangements that followed, Mark won a regular place. He has been scoring pretty consistently.

MICKY BURNS (Forward). Micky is Middlesbrough's leading scorer, his tally including a four-goal hit against Chelsea. He began his career at Blackpool, three times topping their scoring list. Newcastle paid £100,000 for him in 1974 and he was their top scorer for the past two seasons. Last summer Cardiff paid a club record £75,000 fee to sign him but he wasn't happy in Wales and returned north to sign for Middlesbrough for a similar fee. He is a former England amateur international.

BILLY ASHCROFT (Forward). Billy became a scoring sensation with Wrexham and, after hitting 17 in 1975/76 and 27 the following season, Middlesbrough manager John Neal — who had been in charge at Wrexham — signed him for £120,000.

TERRY COCHRANE (Forward). Middlesbrough signed Terry from Burnley for £210,000 this season and he has been a regular member of the N. Ireland team, taking his cap total to eight. He began with Coleraine and came across to sign for Burnley in 1976.

STAN CUMMINS (Forward). Stan filled the void left by Graeme Souness's departure to Liverpool in 1977. He came through the juniors and made a couple of League appearances in 1976/77.

Pit your wits...

1. If a player deliberately turns his back on an opponent when he is about to be tackled, may he be charged?

2. What action is taken if a player spits at an opponent?

3. If during a game a referee cautions a player and at the end of the game the player sincerely apologises, should the referee omit to report the caution?

4. What action should a referee take if a player shouts "OK it's mine" as he and an opponent attempt to play the ball?

5. Should the referee stop the game for a player who is slightly injured?

6. A throw in has been awarded and before it is taken an incident occurs in the penalty area when a defender kicks an attacker. What action should a referee take?

7. If a player is fouled but the referee allows play to continue because there is a definite advantage to the offended team, may the referee take disciplinary action later?

8. In which division of the Football League are Workington Town?

9. What is the name of Hamilton Academicals' ground?

10. Where do Swansea City play?

11. Who was Swansea's most capped player?

12. Which club play at Fellows Park?

13. Which club won the Football League Cup in 1973?

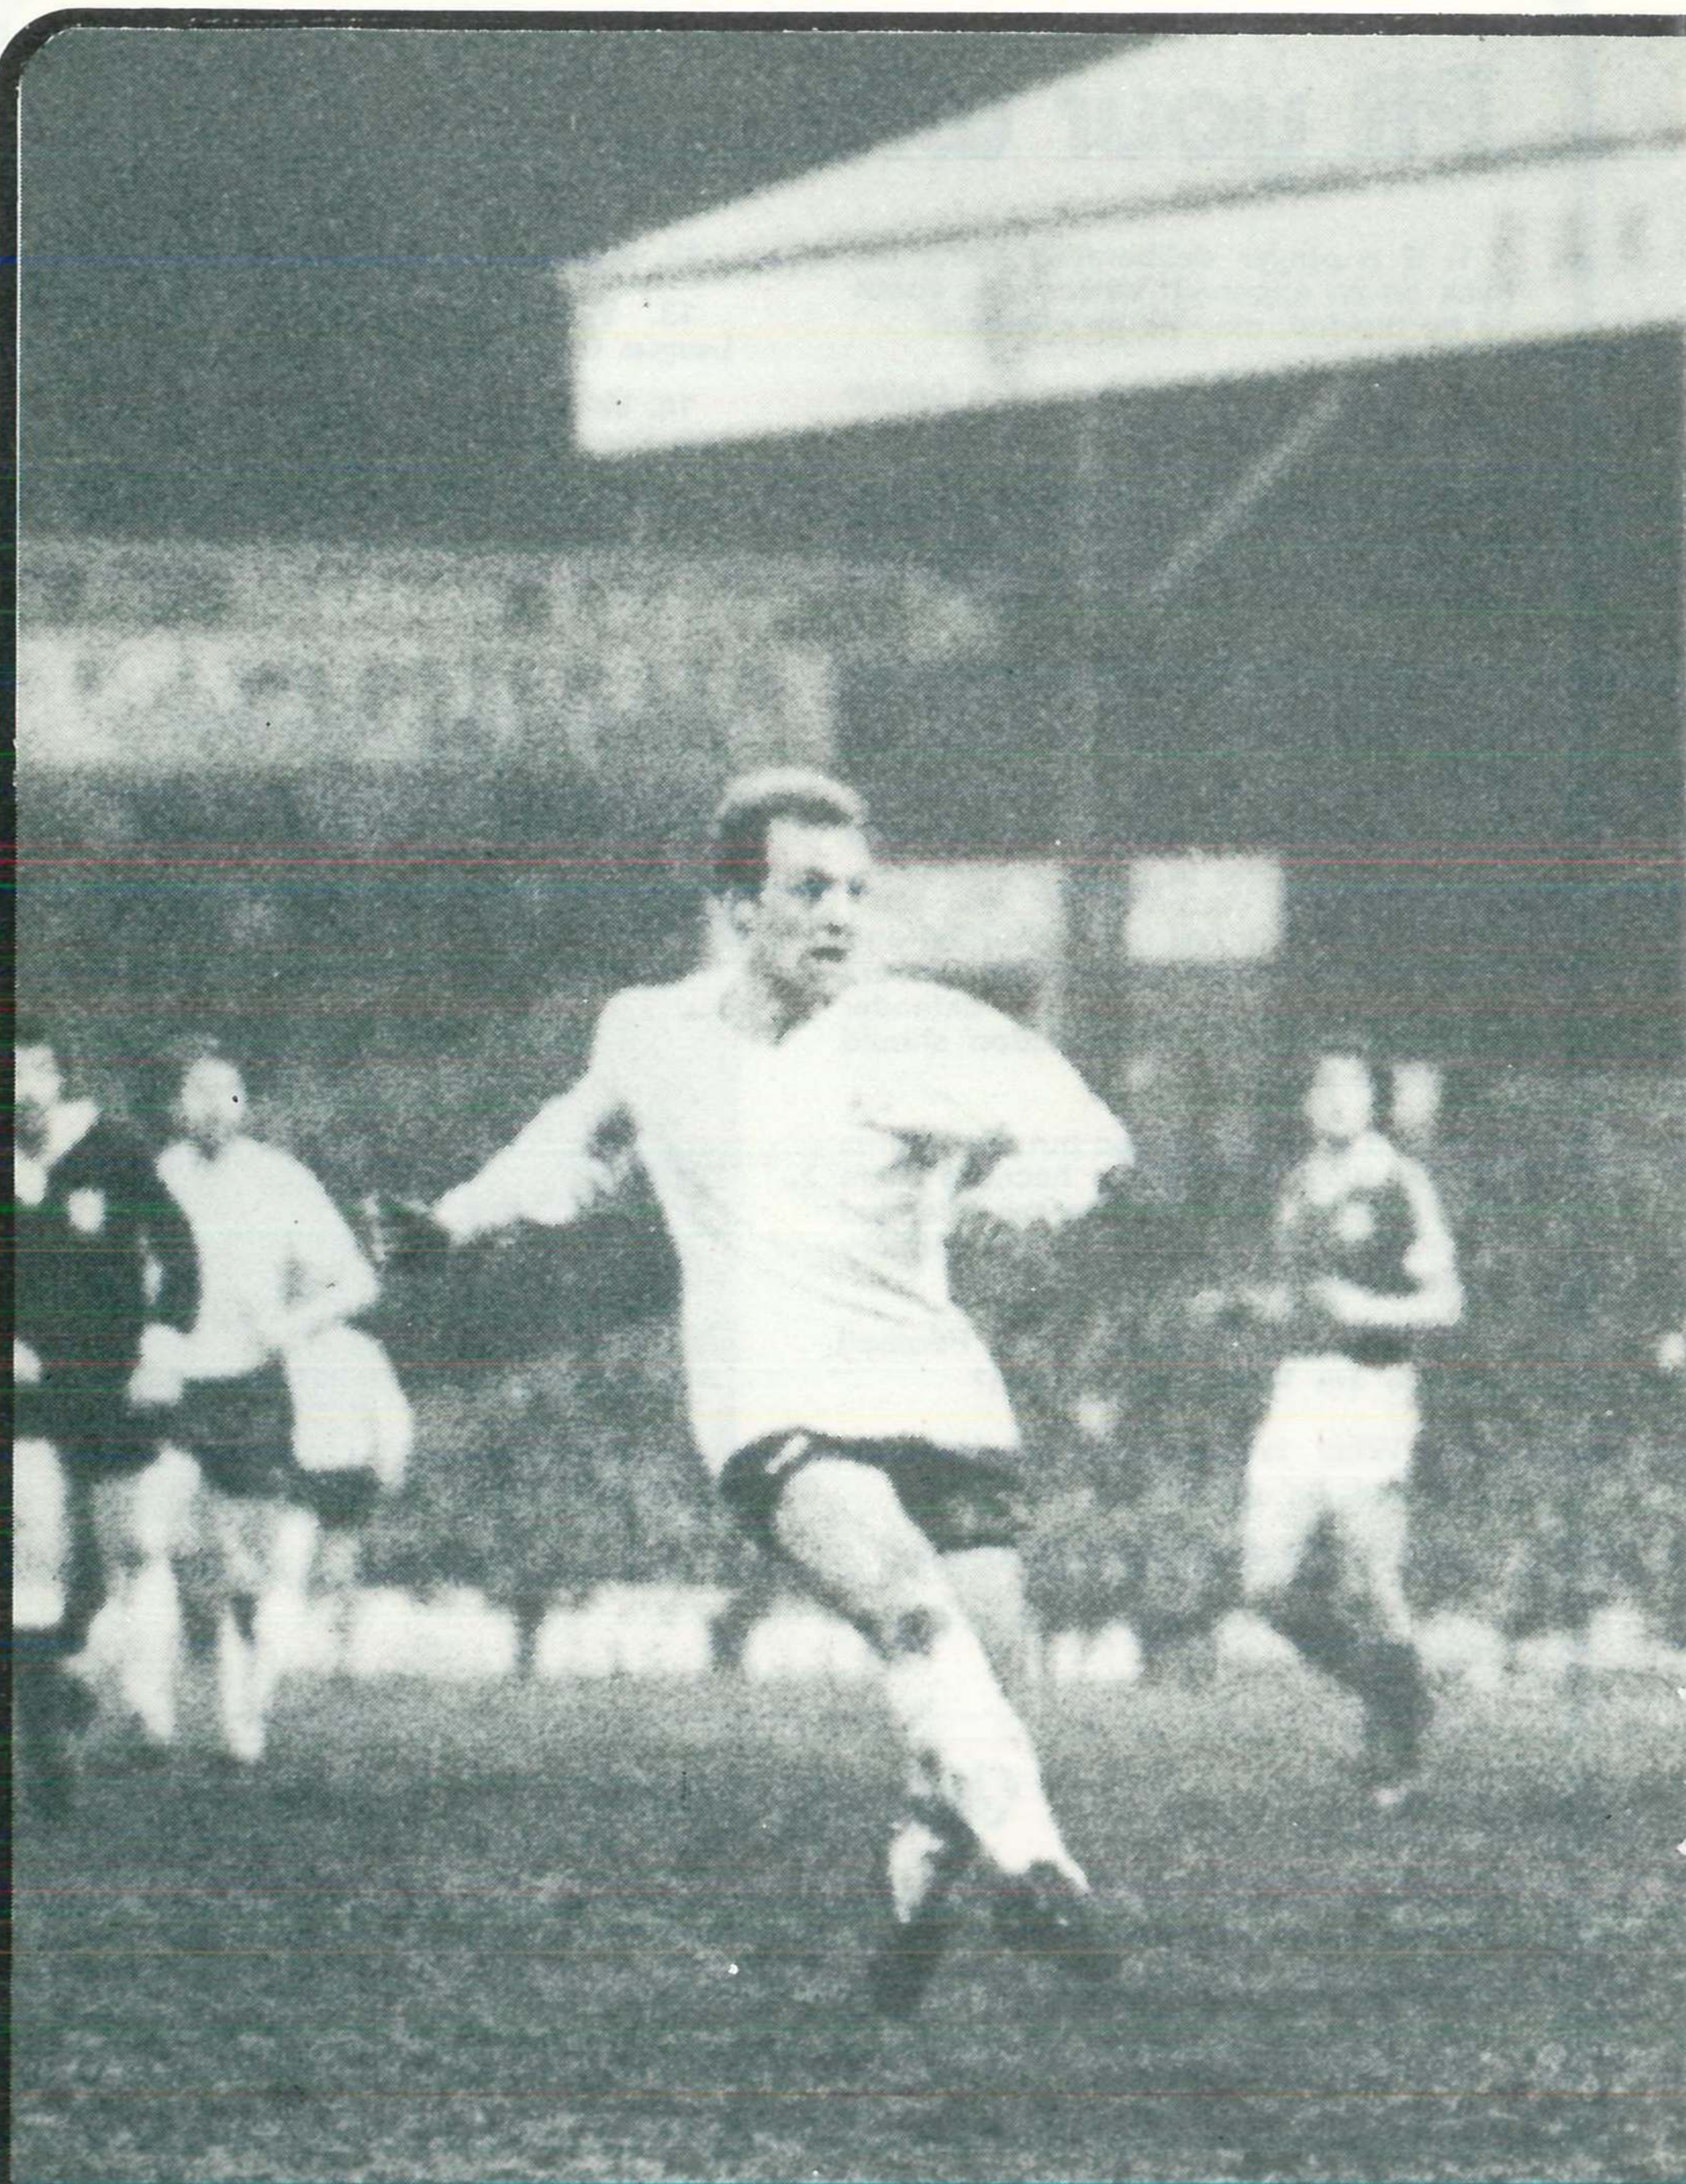

14. Which former Wolves player won 105 England caps?

15. Name this player.

Quiz Answers

1—Yes, but not in a violent or dangerous manner; 2—This comes into the category of violent conduct and the offending player should be sent off; 3—No. All cautions must be reported; 4—If the referee considers that the opponent was "put off" by the shout he should issue a caution to the caller for ungentlemanly conduct, and re-start the game with an indirect free kick; 5—No. The referee should only stop the game if, in his opinion, the player is seriously injured; 6—The referee should deal with the defender for serious foul play, send him from the field and restart the game with a throw in; 7—Yes. If the player considers the foul was sufficient to warrant the player being cautioned or dismissed from the field, he should administer the caution or sending off when the ball next goes out of play; 8—Workington Town are a Rugby League team; 9—Douglas Park; 10—Vetch Field; 11—Ivor Allchurch (42 caps for Wales); 12—Walsall; 13—Spurs; 14—Billy Wright; 15—Mick Lyons (Everton).

Neil Whatmore scores his second goal of the season in the Wanderers' 3-1 home win over Everton.
